

INVITATION – CALL OF INTEREST

PRESENTATION OF THE ELECTRONIC APPLICATION PROPOSAL - SYSTEM REFERRED TO TAX FREE SHOPPING FOR THIRD COUNTRIES' TRAVELERS

Independent Authority for Public Revenue, in pursuit of its strategic objectives of "Business and Trade Facilitation" and "Enhancing Tax Compliance", invites for the express of interest on proposals for the presentation of electronic systems in the field of implementation - management of the "VAT exemption procedure for the Tax Free shopping by the taxable person established within the European Union to a buyer-third country traveler and departing for a third country from Greece or through another Member State."

Companies must express their interest in delivering a power point of up to 30 minutes. The presentation should cover at least the following topics:

- Application functionalities – electronic services provided
- Possibility for Access of IAPR employees to the application / functionalities provided - minimum hardware or other equipment requirements Possibility of interconnection with IAPR's main information systems -in order to have on line access to the sales shops data
- Interoperability with IAPR information systems
- Possibility of Greek Customs offices to interconnect / communicate with EU customs offices through this application
- Historicity of the system - data retention
- Protection of buyers' personal data
- Connection of the application to peripherals (eg printers - scanners)
- Management of the application and data access
- Interconnection of the application with similar applications in EU countries
- VAT Refund Completion Update (direct - indirect discharge)
- Sharing previous experience from implementing similar applications in other EU countries.

In order to facilitate the process during the time of presentation, only representatives of the company implementing the presentation of its electronic application and as well as representatives of the competent departments of IAPR shall be allowed in the room.

Interested companies are kindly requested to register by 15/11/2019 to the following email addresses.

Companies shall announce their interest via email at: gdcustoms@aae.gr, which belongs to the General Directorate for Customs and Excise with a notification to the Directorate for Excise and VAT (email address: vat-customs@2001.syzefxis.gov.gr).

Following the expression of interest, a communication will be followed by the Office of the General Directorate for Customs and Excise regarding the date, time and venue of the presentation.

Please note that this invitation does not constitute a bidding procedure and does not bind the Greek State.